

Metropolitan Wind Symphony

New England's Premier Concert Band

The Pines of Rome

CONCERT SUNDAY, MAY 1, 2016, 3:00 PM

Pre-Concert Lecture by Music Director and Conductor Lewis J. Buckley at 2:30 pm

Cornet soloists Mark Olson and Dan Lasdow

Our first half will feature our last duet of the season brought to us by cornetists Mark Olson and Dan Lasdow in the form of a charming, early 20th century Herbert L. Clarke duet titled Side Partners. The first half will close with a huge climax, Ottorino Respighi's monumental Pines of Rome. In the second half, we invite students of the many Met Winds music teachers to join us for works by Grainger and Alfred Reed, closing with our 2002 commissioned work, Johan de Meij's Wind in the Willows.
